CANCELLATION POLICY

In case of voluntary cancellation by the Client, the following terms will apply:

1. The deposit amount of 20% is non-refundable, except in case of 'force majeure' (see below).
2. If the cancellation occurs within 7 days of the scheduled performance, the Client is responsible for paying the full agreed-upon fee.
3. In case of changing the event date and not cancelling the performance, moving the event 7 days or less from the originally scheduled date will be acceptable. Moving the event date by more than 7 days will constitute a new event (and cancellation of the original one), for which a new contract will be signed and the deposit paid again to secure the Band's services.
4. All fixed costs and cancellation/rescheduling fees (transport, hotels, etc.) will be borne by the Client.

In case of involuntary cancellation by the Client or the Band due to unforeseen circumstances such as acts of nature, illness/death, government regulations, strikes, or other 'force majeure' events, any amount paid to the Band will be reimbursed to the Client.

The Band reserves the right to terminate this contract immediately if the Client (or any of their representatives) engages in any conduct that is deemed unprofessional or negligent, including but not limited to:

- Verbal or physical abuse towards the Band members or venue staff.
- Failure to enforce adequate safety measures, resulting in potential harm to the Band members or their equipment.
- Failure to provide the agreed-upon technical requirements necessary for the Band's performance.

In the event of termination under this clause, the Client shall forfeit any payments made, and the Band shall not be liable for any damages or losses incurred by the Client as a result of the termination.
